A NOTE FROM THE EVENT SECRETARY

As always a huge thanks to my club helpers and officials. Today we had:

Paul Freegard – opening the HQ for you

Stuart Anderson – observing the left turn

Steve Ayres – observing the first RAB and taking traffic counts

Jeremy Tyzack – observing the third RAB and checking riders completed whole course

Mike Gibbons – finish calling and traffic count

And of course to the timekeepers and officials above.

Also of course thanks to the Bradstone Sports Pavilion for the use of their building and car parking which makes running the event so much easier.

So having seen the morning forecast of 80% chance of rain (and lots of it) I got up with trepidation to find it raining at home. On getting north of the M4 the rain turned to drizzle and at Malmesbury the roads were drying. Amazingly I got to lay out the course in the dry and the riders got to race in sunshine with no wind. It could have been described as a warm morning. The traffic counts show the value of the early start with even the 0900 hrs counts not getting above 250 units.

Josh Newbould obviously likes the course as having won in April this year he won again today. The results are slightly complicated as I am giving all road bike riders their own position, whether in the road bike event or not, but of course for CTT results riders will be in the categories they entered.

And the Women's record was broken by Laura Pittard with her 23:47.
